LIDO'S LEGGY CABARET

BY SANDRA ISKANDER

Paris comes alive by night and what better way to catch a glimpse of all its glamour than with a glass of champagne and a sexy cabaret.

Bonheur, Lido's dazzling revue with 23 sets, 70 artists, and 600 sumptuous costumes, will take your breath away.

Getting together the world's most beautiful dancers, and tallest, the original Miss Bluebell, Margaret Kelly Leibovici, created a worldwide phenomenon when she put together a dance troupe that was colourful and sophisticated. Today, the Bluebell Girls continue the tradition, strutting and shimmering on stage in this all-encompassing show of music and dance that recently celebrated its 5000th performance.

A wonderful treat for anyone who loves delightful musicals, watch Carlen Keizer, the lead dancer (pictured), come alive on stage as she blows you away with her "happy pop" voice.
